MEALS AND COOKING FACILITIES INFORMATION 2021

The Lodging Option sheet indicates which lodging buildings allow cooking and which don't. WE MUST FOLLOW THESE RULES. If it says "No Cooking" that is what it means, including outside of your door or building. Anybody without cooking facilities in their lodging will have use of a commercial kitchen (in Convocation Hall) to use Sunday through Thursday. It is highly recommended you bring meals prepared ahead so they just need reheating. It will be a great time saver. (Freezing them helps keep your cooler cold longer). The lodging areas with kitchens have minimal cookware, bringing what you need would be recommended.

We have access to at least 3 ice machines for filling coolers. Please, do not let children play in ice machines! Some lodging accommodations have refrigerators available.

New 2021: All meals are on your own unless you choose to buy lunch or supper from Bonclarken. Bonclarken will prepare and provide lunch on Monday and lunch and supper on Tuesday thru Thursday.

Monday supper: Grill out lakeside (Headsprings Pavilion): bring your own meal, tableware and drinks. 4:30 p.m.
Grills and campfire will be available.

Bonclarken Meals: A Bonclarken staff-served meal, minimum of 30 paid meals are required to open Dining Hall. Gluten free and dietary restriction meals are available.
